

Report on

Science Awareness Programme for School Children Organised by National Academy of Science India (NASI) North East Region Shillong Chapter in Collaboration with Nongstoin College, West Khasi Hills.

A one Day Science Awareness Programme for School Children Organised by National Academy of Science India (NASI) North East Region Shillong Chapter in Collaboration with Nongstoin College, West Khasi Hills was conducted on the 29th November 2017 at Conference Hall, Nongstoin College. The Inauguration programme was chaired by Prof. S. R. Joshi from Department of Biotechnology NEHU, Shillong, Secretary of the National Academy of Science India (NASI) North East Region Shillong Chapter and the inaugural speech was addressed by the Principal Nongstoin College Prof. B. K Laitflang, The programme started at 11:00 a.m. and includes two popular talks from Prof. R.N.K.Horoo, Senior professor from the Department of Zoology, North Eastern Hill University Shillong where she delivered a lecture on the important of animal diversity, emphasises on the Amphibian of Meghalaya, their protection in natural habitats and teaches the student how science is important in a community, society and country as a whole. And followed by a lecture from Prof. D. Syiem from the Department of Biochemistry, NEHU, Shillong who lectured on the dynamic of nature whereby living and non-living things were made by micro and macro molecules binding together to form any objects on the planet earth.

The participants who attended were B.Sc students from Nongstoin College, Class IX-XII students and escort teachers from different schools. All participants are benefitted from the topics delivered by the eminent scientists or concern experts and also the students were actively interacting with the scientists during the technical session.

Details below are the number of participants attended:-

No. of students and escort teachers	254
No. of Teachers	12
No. of resource person	5
Volunteers	15
Total	286

(Dr. H Kharbani)
Co-ordinator
Head, Department of Zoology
Nongstoin College

Science Awareness Programme for School Children Organised by National Academy of Science India (NASI) North East Region Shillong Chapter in Collaboration with Nongstoin College, West Khasi Hills.

Science Awareness Programme for School Children Organised by National Academy of Science India (NASI) North East Region Shillong Chapter in Collaboration with Nongstoin College, West Khasi Hills.

