

Summary of the Workshop on Usage of Generic Medicines: Issues and Relevance for Quality Health Care Services Organised by Center for Distance Education, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong and Nongstoin College, Nongstoin Sponsored By ICSSR, New Delhi on 21st March, 2024.

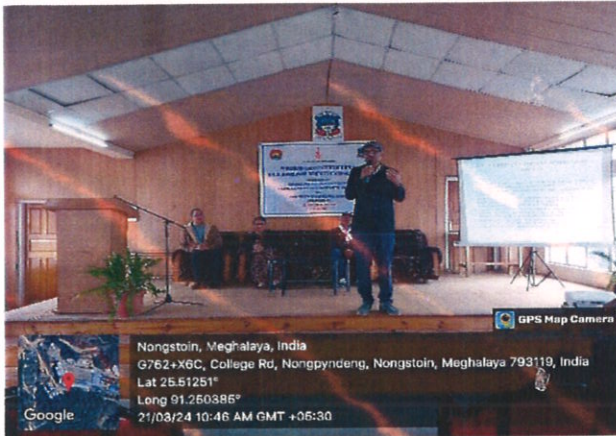

The workshop on generic medicine aim to foster understanding and awareness about the significance, safety, cost-effective alternatives to brand name drugs and accessibility among the students and faculties of Nongstoin College.

The workshop was inaugurated by an opening welcome by IQAC Co-ordinator, Dr. S. Wahlang followed by a short speech delivered by Dr. (Mrs.) I. Mawthoh, Principal, Nongstoin College.

Professor B. P. Sahoo, delivered a presentation elucidating the scientific basis of generic drugs, their bioequivalence, and regulatory standards. The lecture was then followed by Miss Adhiti Sinha, Research Scholar who delivered an insightful lecture and various case studies showcasing the impact on patient outcomes and healthcare expenditure. An interactive session of 20 minutes provided attendees to deepen their understanding through clarification of various issues surrounding the generic medicines after which Miss Adhiti Sinha clarified each one of them.

The workshop was concluded by a vote of thanks from Dr. C. M. Thabah, Nongstoin College.
